

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY
FY 2009
GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT (GAD) ACCOMPLISHMENT REPORT

PROGRAM	CLIENTELE	OBJECTIVE	GENDER ISSUE	GAD ACTIVITY	RESULTS	COST	REMARKS
						GAA
1. GAD Advocacy Program on Energy Safety Practices and Efficiency Measures	Households and employees of government agencies, local government units & non-governmental organizations as well as students and academe of various schools/universities	To disseminate information about energy efficiency measures & safety practices in using LPG and other petroleum products and to promote the rights and privileges of consumers on the use of energy products (Topics include energy conservation opportunities in the households, meter reading, energy labeling for household appliances and lighting system, safety tips on liquid petroleum products, gasoline station loan fund program, consumer tips and safety in handling LPG products.	Need to integrate GAD with energy efficiency and safety practices	Conducted GAD Advocacy Program on Energy Safety Practices and Efficiency Measures for the ff LGUs &amp; Universities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>&gt; Barangay Moriones, Tondo, Manila (26 March 2009)</li> <li>&gt; Arellano University (14 April 2009)</li> <li>&gt; Phil. College of Science &amp; Technology, Manila (16 April 2009)</li> <li>&gt; City Hall of Taguig (24 April 2009)</li> <li>&gt; Municipality of Calapan Oriental Mindoro (13 May 2009)</li> <li>&gt; Barangay Baseco, Tondo, Manila (27 July 2009)</li> <li>&gt; Barangay Talaba, Bacoor Cavite (07 September 2009)</li> <li>&gt; Barangay Cembo, Makati City (08 December 2009)</li> <li>&gt; Centennial Homes Subd. Cabuyao, Laguna (14 December 2009)</li> </ul>	Greater awareness on and appreciation for energy efficiency and safety practices at the household level.	P125,213.99 (Expenses include meals &amp; transportation of the R/Ss as well as supplies &amp; materials used)

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY
FY 2009
GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT (GAD) ACCOMPLISHMENT REPORT

PROGRAM	CLIENTELE	OBJECTIVE	GENDER ISSUE	GAD ACTIVITY	RESULTS	COST	REMARKS
						GAA
2. Gender Planning, Budgeting & Evaluation	DOE-GAD Focal Point and Technical Working Group	To review/evaluate the plans and projects as well as the accomplishments of DOE GAD Programs for FY 2009		Meetings with lectures on the following GAD related topics/issues: > Sexual Harassment > GAD Guideline for Project Development Implementation, Monitoring and Evaluation > GAD Planning, Budgeting and Project Development	> Well-defined DOE-GAD plans and programs. > Greater awareness on GAD issues / concern by the DOE-GAD Focal Point and Technical Working Group	P78,070.00  (Expenses include meals of the attendees and tokens given to the invited guests)	DOE-GAD Focal Point and TWG Meeting with lecture was held once a month
3. Gender Awareness Program of the National Commission on the Role of Filipino Women (NCRFW)	DOE Officials and Employees	To participate in the GAD activities conducted by the NCRFW	Low level of gender consciousness of officials & employees on women's advocacy program	> Women's Day Celebration held at the World Trade Center, Manila on 02 March 2009	> DOE employees gained awareness on the increasing GAD programs and activities particularly on Micro-Financing	P39,669.50  (Expenses include meals of the attendees and rental of the vehicle used to transport the DOE contingent)	50employees joined the celebration
					TOTAL COSTS	P242,953.49	